

Dr Neil Bramall, Associate CEng MIGEM

Skills and Specialisms:

- GIS and utility mapping software and tools
- Data Quality Improvement
- Data Modelling and Standards
- Software Development and Configuration
- Data Capture, storage and visualisation workflows
- Product Owner/Manager
- Software Project Management
- Innovation and Geospatial Strategy
- 20 years' experience in the utilities sector developing tools and workflows for safe working and data quality improvement

Key Achievements

- Technical Advisor to the Geospatial Commission, and Product Owner for the National Underground Asset Register (NUAR) project
- Steering Group Member of the NEUIHub and London HADES utility data exchange initiative and Working Group Member of Project Iceberg collaborative industry initiative
- Two-time winner of the Ordnance Survey sponsored Geovation Innovation Challenge
- Founder of Utility Survey Exchange Ltd, working to improve the quality of spatial data relating to buried assets across the utilities sector. Currently working with UK Power Networks to improve data quality at source