

John Robinson Associates

Utility Survey Specialists & Consultants

We Advise and Consult on any further survey applications that can enhance the quality of the survey data and reduce risk.

This may be more and extra survey investigations by additional methods or possible verification by excavation to expose utilities at strategic locations.

PAS 128:2014
Specification for underground utility detection, verification and location

